When necessary, this policy is discussed with children as are the rights and responsibilities of each child, the meaning of bullying (including cyber-bullying) and harassment and what to do if they or someone they know experiences them.

What are bullying, cyber-bullying and harassment?

Bullying can be done in various ways including physically, verbally, socially and psychologically. It is behavior directed towards a less powerful person or group that is intended to cause harm, distress or fear.

A child is experiencing bullying when they experience any of the following behaviours in an ongoing way:

- Hitting, pushing, kicking, punching etc.
- Humiliation, put-downs, name calling
- Rumors, ignoring, exclusion

- Staring, dirty looks, notes, spreading rumours

Cyber-bullying consists of covert, psychological bullying, conveyed through an electronic medium such as mobile phone, blog or social media. It can be verbal (over the phone), or written (threats, racial, sexual or homophobic harassment).

Harassment is any verbal, physical or sexual conduct (including gestures) which is uninvited, unwelcome or offensive to a person.

When people are bullied or harassed some effects might be anger, embarrassment, fear and humiliation, loss of self-confidence and reduced function and potential.

How does cyber-bullying differ to traditional bullying?

1. Availability – It can occur anywhere and at any time. Misperception that there are no real-world consequences for online actions.

2. Anonymity – The impression of anonymity in the 'online world' leads young people to feel less accountable for their actions and provides a false bravado to would-be bullies.

3. Geography – Rather than being limited to the schoolyard, cyberbullying can operate wherever a young person uses the internet or a mobile phone, which occurs in most areas of a young person's life.

4. Impact – The internet provides the means for 'bullying' comments to be available to a wider audience. Through social networking sites, these comments can be viewed by potentially an unlimited number of people. The impact of and embarrassment caused by these statements is increased many times over.

5. Intent – A private message or joke that is forwarded on may become offensive or harassing even though that was not the intention of the original sender.

6. Permanence – Verbal comments are fleeting. Online content is tracked and stored and can potentially resurface at any time.

7. Democracy – Anyone can be a victim – students, teachers, parents.

Bullying – What should you do if it's happening to you?

If any of the above behaviours are happening to you or someone you know, you / they should:
- Tell the person to STOP (or you can just ignore it) and walk away
- Tell a Mentor, the School Coordinator, your parents or another person you trust about it as soon as possible;
- If you cannot talk to anyone you know about it, phone the Kids Help Line on: 1800 55 1800

Procedure Following a Report of Bullying

1. Student's Personal Mentor, Leader of Teaching and Learning or School Coordinator asks the student to describe what happened

2. The other child(ren) will be asked to describe what happened

3. The Personal Mentor, Leader of Teaching and Learning or School Coordinator will determine if what has occurred is bullying (including cyber-bullying), harassment or another type of behavior.

4. If it is not bullying, the behavior will be identified as Level 1, 2 or 3 in the Behaviour Management Policy and the equivalent level response will be put into place.

5. If the behavior falls within the definition of bullying (or cyber-bullying) the offending student(s) will be instructed to stop the behavior and his/her parents will be notified.

6. The Personal Mentor, Leader of Teaching and Learning or School Coordinator may decide that a Restorative Practices meeting should occur between the students involved.

7. The parents of the children involved will be informed of this process and the outcomes.

8. If the bullying behavior continues, a meeting will be held with the offending student, his/her parents, the student's Personal Mentor, Leader of Teaching and Learning or School Coordinator. A Personal Management Plan will be developed at this meeting.

9. The behavior of all students involved will be monitored by all school staff.

10. If the Personal Management Plan is not followed, the question of the offending student's enrolment will be referred to the school board for consideration.

11. The KVS Board will either cancel the student's enrolment or place other conditions on his / her enrolment which will be closely monitored.

12. Ongoing support will be offered to the child who has experienced the bullying behavior and group dynamics will be closely monitored by all staff throughout the day.

13. Student programs will be organized to raise student's awareness about bullying (including cyber-bullying) and harassment, to provide a forum for discussion of matters and to aide development of attitudes and school culture. Some matters will be dealt with formally in the curriculum and in peer support programs, leadership programs, extra-curricular programs and occasional activities run by outside experts and workers.
